Price 1s.

Pitman's Phonetic Journal.

The official organ of Pitman's Shorthand. Published every Saturday, 32 pages, price 1d. 12 columns of Shorthand in the Learner's, Corresponding, and Reporting Styles. As the key is appended to each column, the paper forms an invaluable aid to the work of the shorthand teacher by enabling the pupil to make a marked and rapid advance in his studies week by week. Typewriting and many other essential features of modern education, including languages, trade, law, and book-keeping, are treated by experts in a clear and interesting manner. To the young business man or woman Pitman's Phonetic Journal is the most useful and practical periodical published. To be obtained of all Newsagents, Booksellers, and Smith's Railway Bookstalls.

Handwritten musical notation on a five-line staff. The notation includes various rhythmic values (e.g., eighth, sixteenth, and thirty-second notes), rests, and accidentals (sharps, flats, and naturals). The handwriting is fluid and characteristic of 18th-century musical manuscripts.

Handwritten musical notation on a single staff, featuring various notes, rests, and bar lines. The notation is dense and appears to be a single melodic line. The notes are mostly eighth and sixteenth notes, with some longer rests. The bar lines are clearly marked, dividing the music into measures. The handwriting is fluid and characteristic of early 20th-century musical notation.
